

TODAY I AM...

Vocal Workshop Program

Perform as part of Queensland Music Festival 2017

Registration Form

Join Access Arts and Cheep Trill community choirs to discover your own voice through song. Internationally acclaimed singer song writer Emma Dean will be joined by Brisbane's Women in Voice producer Annie Peterson to guide your learnings.

Be involved in performance opportunities at QPAC and the massed choir of Queensland Music Festival.

If you have some experiences to share or try something new - Today I Am is just for you!

Who is facilitating the workshops?

ANNIE PETERSON - Annie is highly regarded vocalist, producer, teacher, choral leader and director of major theatre and multi-genre arts festivals and companies. She was lead artist for Access Arts singers and Director of Rhapsodaisy and Producer of Women in Voice.

EMMA DEAN - Emma is a Brisbane singer and songwriter who has been working on New York City's off-Broadway circuit and touring the world performing alongside Kate Miller-Heidke, Katie Noonan, Amanda Palmer and The Dresden Dolls. Emma has founded a cheeky community choir, Cheep Trill, followed by creating a grassroots musicians' network - The Tiger Common who exists to support an inclusive creative community.
